

Growing and Marketing Pawpaw:

A “new” Specialty Crop for Missouri Producers

Friday, August 23, 2019

2:00pm - 5:00pm

(Check in and beverages beginning at 1:30pm)

Horticulture and Agroforestry Research Center

10 Research Drive, New Franklin, Missouri 65274

- See, taste and learn about this versatile native fruit
- Get up to date information on successfully growing and profitably marketing the recently designated official state fruit of Missouri

Speakers:

Patrick Byers, MU Extension, Field Specialist in Horticulture

Aaron Templemire, Senior Research Lab Technician, HARC

Zhen Cai, MU Center for Agroforestry, Assistant Research Professor

Gregory Ormsby Mori, Outreach Coordinator, MU Center for Agroforestry

There is no charge to participate, but advanced registration is requested.

Please contact Caroline Todd at the Center for Agroforestry:

Email: toddcs@missouri.edu Telephone: 573-884-2874

University of Missouri Center for Agroforestry, 203 ABNR Bldg. University of Missouri, Columbia, MO 65211

 The Center for Agroforestry
University of Missouri

A Global Center for Agroforestry, Entrepreneurship and the Environment

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI
 Extension

An equal opportunity/ADA institution